Classroom Highlights

Tuesday was Jenny Kolter Day, and we celebrated all week by doing random acts of kindness. We talked about different ways we can show people kindness, and we even experienced others doing kind acts for us! Please encourage your child to show random acts of kindness not just this week, but EVERYDAY!

Notes from the Teacher:

- If you wish to order books from the Scholastic book orders, please do so by Friday, Sept. 25th! Our class code is: P9QP8
- Please help your child remember to bring their library books back to school every Friday! They cannot check out a new book until their old one is returned.
